

Volusia Volleyball Club: Team Roles

Coaches Role:

- Set a good example for players and parents to follow
- Be positive, fair, and consistent with each player
- Make playing time and strategic decisions with thought and care while maintaining team goals
- Communicate clearly with players and parents at the appropriate time and in keeping with team policies
- The safety of the athletes is top priority
- Keep inventory of equipment and pass along a sense of value of the equipment and the playing facilities to the players.
- Adhere to all AAU guidelines and USAV policies and Volusia Volleyball guidelines
- If problems do occur, please notify club director Melanie Jenkins at 386-566-1944 or mjbosticjax@msn.com

Player's Role

- Be positive and have a good attitude
- Support your teammates
- Arrive on time to all practices and tournaments
- Know and follow team rules
- Use the involvement on the team to challenge yourself as an athlete and as a person
- Balance your athletics with your best academic efforts.
- Trust the coach to make decisions that are in the best interest of the team, while balancing the interest of individual players.

Parent's Role

- Pick up daughter/teammates promptly following practices and tournaments
- Be supportive of everyone on the team, both those on and off the court
- Respect decisions of the officials and the humanity of other parents
- Keep negative thoughts about the coach, the club, teammates, and opponents to yourself.
- Refrain from challenging coaching decisions at all times, and certainly not on competition days
- Be supportive of your daughter at all times.
